Area Seniors Recognized with College Scholarships from The Laurels of New London

NEW LONDON, Ohio – The Laurels of New London, a skilled nursing and rehabilitation center operated by Laurel Health Care Company, is recognizing two New London High School seniors, Peyton Wilson and Abby Maret, with college scholarships.

For the past eight years, The Laurels has recognized New London graduating seniors who are advancing their academic careers in the healthcare industry. The clinical team at The Laurels selects scholarship recipients based on GPA and school and community involvement. Applicants must also submit a letter requesting consideration for the scholarship.

Wilson will be attending Bowling Green State University in the fall with the goal of graduating as a physician assistant specializing in sports medicine. Maret will be attending Cleveland State University with the goal of attaining a degree in physical therapy. Both scholarship recipients are driven to achieve their personal dreams and are passionate about their chosen field of study.
